

Nycomed Canada Inc.

Fact Sheet

Nycomed Global	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Global headquarters are based in Zürich, Switzerland, and research and development is led out of Konstanz, Germany • 11,500 employees worldwide • Present in more than 50 markets – throughout Europe and in fast-growing markets such as Latin America, Russia/CIS and Asia-Pacific • Products provided globally to over 100 countries • 19 manufacturing facilities in 13 countries • Ranked by sales, Nycomed is among the 25 largest pharmaceutical companies in the world and 15th in the world OTC market • Net turnover 2007 € 3.5 billion
Nycomed in Canada	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Canadian headquarters is based in Oakville, Ontario • 220 employees across the country • ‘Best Workplaces in Canada’ (2008) and ‘Canada’s Top 100 Employers’ (2005–2009) • John Suk is the President and CEO of Nycomed in Canada, leading the company and growing team since 1997
Therapeutic Areas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Gastroenterology • Pain Management • Respiriology • Dermatology
Products	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alvesco® • Pantoloc™ • Resultz™ • Omnaris™ • Panto® IV • Tridural™
Nycomed in the Community	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Since 1997, Nycomed has donated almost $3 million to charitable causes such as: The United Way, Oakville Hospital Foundation, the Gairdner Foundation and Health Partners International of Canada • Nycomed is a trusted partner to many of Canada’s leading organizations and institutions including: Université Laval, Université de Montréal, the Asthma Society of Canada, Toronto General & Western Hospital Foundation, University of Manitoba, and the College of Family Physicians of Ontario.
Research and Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • As of June 2008 Nycomed has been involved in more than 50 clinical trials, enrolling almost 10,000 patients • At present, three clinical studies involving more than 240 physicians and over 1,300 patients are underway across the country
Nycomed History	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Nycomed was established in 1874 in Norway • In 1999, the company officially established itself as a European pharmaceutical company with a focus on sourcing and developing new pharmaceutical products • Prior to the integration with ALTANA Pharma, Nycomed was headquartered in Roskilde, Denmark and had 3,500 employees located in 20 countries in Europe and Russia/CIS (Commonwealth of Independent States) • The new Nycomed was founded on January 1, 2007 by the integration of ALTANA Pharma and Nycomed and was officially launched on January 16, 2007

